

28 APR 2007

DEAR MR. NATALE,

First of all, this letter is long overdue. For the longest time I have wanted to thank you for your continued support, and all the time and effort you put in to supporting myself and people like me. I don't know you, but I feel like I do, and I hope someday I could meet you and thank you in person and shake your hand. In a time when support for the war is questionable, it is so very refreshing to see all of the names of the team members that come with your packages. My job is made easier because of people like you, and I thank you for it. Keep up the great work and I hope to meet you in a few months when I come home. Thank you again.

Sincerely,
Kevin Kirkpatrick
